

Explore Sufi Shrines in Pakistan

JAIYANA
Travel & Tourism

+92-321-044-2444

www.jaiyanatravel.com

JAIYANA Travel

Experience Pakistan with JAIYANA Travel & Tourism

JAIYANA's Vision

To build bridges of peace through heritage and pilgrimage.

JAIYANA's Mission

At JAIYANA Travel and Tourism, our mission is to inspire peace, tolerance, and cultural appreciation by offering authentic and respectful heritage and religious tours that celebrate Pakistan's rich and diverse traditions.

Table of Contents

- About Jaiyana
- CEO Message
- Our Story
- Darbar Sirikot Sharif, KPK
- Data Darbar, Lahore
- Shrine of Mian Mir, Lahore
- Shrine of Bibi Pak Daman
- Madholal Hussain Dargah
- Shah Jamal Dargah, Lahore
- Shrine of Baba Bulleh Shah, Kasur
- Shrine of Baba Farid, Pakpattan
- Shrine of Bahauddin Zakariya, Multan
- Shrine of Shah Rukn-e-Alam, Multan
- Shrine of Bari Imam, Islamabad
- Shrine of Pir Mehr Ali Shah, Golra Sharif
- Shrine of Pir Imam Ali Shah, Sialkot
- Shrine of Lal Shahbaz Qalandar, Sehwan Sharif
- Shrine of Abdullah Shah Ghazi, Karachi
- Shrine of Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai, Bhit Shah
- Shrine of Sachal Sarmast, Khairpur
- Makli Necropolis, Thatta
- Mir Karam Ali Talpur Tomb Complex
- Why Choose Jaiyana Travel
- CSR Initiatives

JAIYANA
Travel & Tourism

About JAIYANA

Experienced in organizing Sufi heritage and religious tourism trips, specializing in pilgrimages to Sufi shrines and cultural tours linked to Sufism.

Project Coordinator Beenish

Beenish coordinates Sufi tourism projects, ensuring smooth pilgrimages and authentic spiritual experiences.

Partnerships

Collaborates with local communities, religious trusts, tourism authorities, and government bodies ensuring full security.

Why JAIYANA ?

So you can focus fully on your spiritual journey, while we handle everything else for you and your family.

Message from CEO & Founder

At Jaiyana Travel & Tourism, we believe every journey to a Sufi shrine brings you closer to spiritual awakening and a deeper cultural connection. Our carefully designed itineraries embrace all aspects of your experience from sacred rituals and heritage exploration to moments of relaxation and cultural discovery. As a 100% women-led company, we are dedicated to providing safe, meaningful, and enriching journeys, especially for women travelers and families. Join us to explore Pakistan's profound Sufi heritage with respect, insight, and heart.

Noshaba Shehzad

Our Story

Jaiyana Travel & Tourism was born from a passion to connect travelers with the rich spiritual heritage of Pakistan's diverse religious shrines. Founded and led by women who deeply understand the importance of preserving culture and faith, we specialize in crafting authentic pilgrimage and heritage tours across all faiths. Our journey began with a vision to make spiritual travel safe, insightful, and welcoming especially for women and families. Today, Jaiyana stands as a trusted guide, blending expert knowledge, heartfelt hospitality, and strong community partnerships to offer unforgettable experiences that celebrate the soul of Pakistan's religious and cultural diversity.

JAIYANA
Travel & Tourism

Darbar Sirikot Sharif, Haripur, KPK

Darbar Sirikot Sharif, located in Haripur District, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, is a prominent Sufi shrine associated with the Qadiria order. Known for its spiritual gatherings and message of love and unity, it attracts devotees from all around the world. The shrine's peaceful surroundings and annual Urs make it an important destination for Sufi and religious tourism.

Data Darbar Lahore, Punjab

Data Darbar is one of South Asia's largest Sufi shrines, dedicated to Hazrat Ali Hujwiri (Data Ganj Bakhsh). It attracts millions of visitors yearly, especially during the Urs festival. The site offers tourists a glimpse into Lahore's spiritual life, Sufi music, and vibrant culture, making it a key destination for religious and cultural tourism.

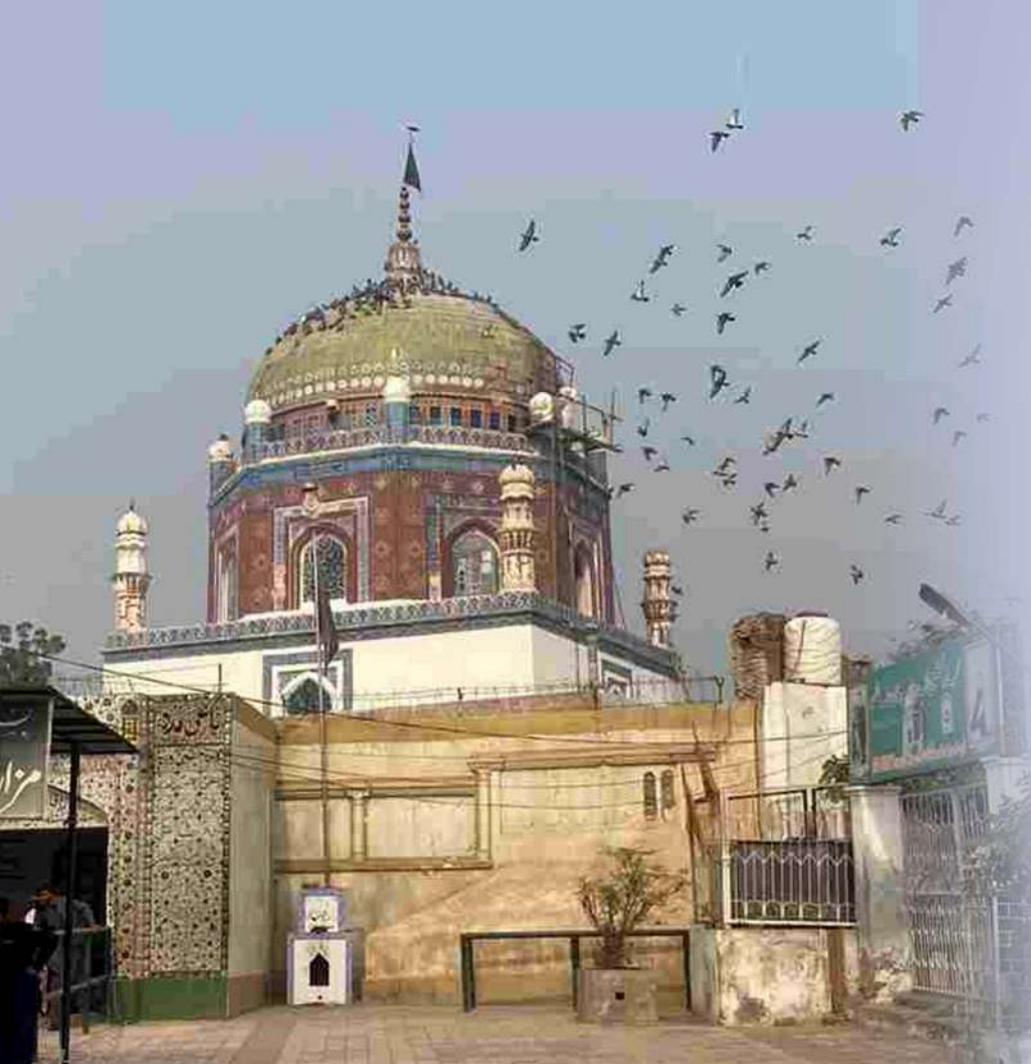

Shrine of Mian Mir, Lahore Punjab

The Shrine of Hazrat Mian Mir, a revered Sufi saint of the Qadiri order, is located in Lahore. Known for his teachings of peace, love, and harmony, Mian Mir is respected by both Muslims and Sikhs—he is said to have laid the foundation of the Golden Temple in Amritsar. The shrine's calm atmosphere and elegant Mughal-era architecture make it a meaningful site for spiritual and heritage tourism in Lahore.

Shrine Bibi Pak Daman Lahore Punjab

The Shrine of Bibi Pak Daman is one of Lahore's most revered spiritual sites, believed to be the resting place of six noble women from the family of Hazrat Ali (RA). It holds great importance for both Shia and Sunni devotees, who visit to seek blessings and spiritual peace. The shrine's rich history, deep devotion, and constant flow of pilgrims make it a significant destination for religious and cultural tourism in Lahore.

Madho Lal Hussain Dargah, Lahore Punjab

The Madho Lal Hussain Dargah in Lahore is dedicated to the Sufi poet Shah Hussain and his devotee Madho Lal. Known for its message of divine love and unity, the shrine hosts the vibrant Mela Chiraghan (Festival of Lights) each year. It is a major attraction for devotees, poets, and tourists, showcasing Lahore's rich Sufi and cultural heritage.

Shah Jamal Dargah, Lahore Punjab

The Shah Jamal Dargah in Lahore is dedicated to the revered Sufi saint Hazrat Shah Jamal, known for spreading Islam through peace and devotion. The shrine is famous for its weekly dhamaal (spiritual dance) and Qawwali sessions, which attract devotees and visitors alike, making it a lively center of Sufi culture and spiritual tourism.

Shrine of Baba Bulleh Shah, Kasur Punjab

The shrine of Baba Bulleh Shah, the renowned Punjabi Sufi poet, is located in Kasur. It attracts thousands of visitors during his annual Urs for its soulful Qawwali and vibrant atmosphere, making it a key site for Sufi and cultural tourism in Punjab.

Shrine of Baba Farid, Pakpattan Punjab

The Shrine of Baba Farid, located in Pakpattan, is dedicated to the great 12th-century Sufi saint Baba Fariduddin Ganjshakar. Known for his message of peace, love, and humility, his shrine draws thousands of devotees, especially during the annual Urs. It serves as a major center for Sufi devotion and an important destination for spiritual and cultural tourism in Punjab.

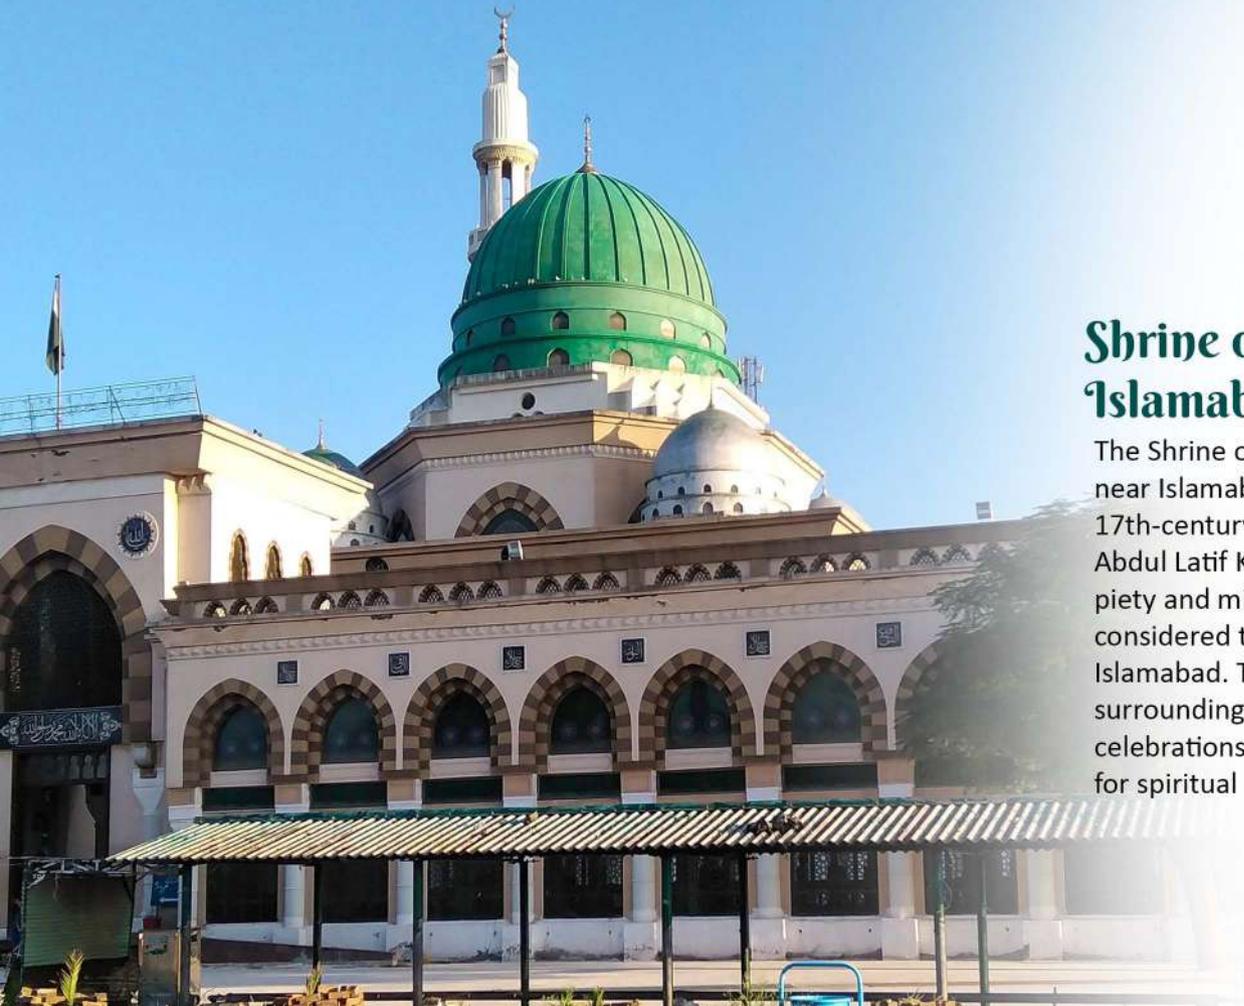

Shrine of Bahauddin Zakariya, Multan Punjab

The Shrine of Bahauddin Zakariya, a 13th-century Sufi saint, stands as a landmark of Multan's spiritual and architectural heritage. Known for spreading Islam and Sufi teachings of love and tolerance, the shrine attracts devotees and tourists alike. Its grand dome and unique Multani architecture make it a key attraction for religious and cultural tourism in southern Punjab.

Shrine of Shah Rukn-e-Alam, Multan Punjab

The shrine of Shah Rukn-e-Alam, a 14th-century Sufi saint, is a masterpiece of Multani architecture. Known for its grand dome and spiritual aura, it attracts countless pilgrims and tourists, symbolizing Multan's heritage as the "City of Saints."

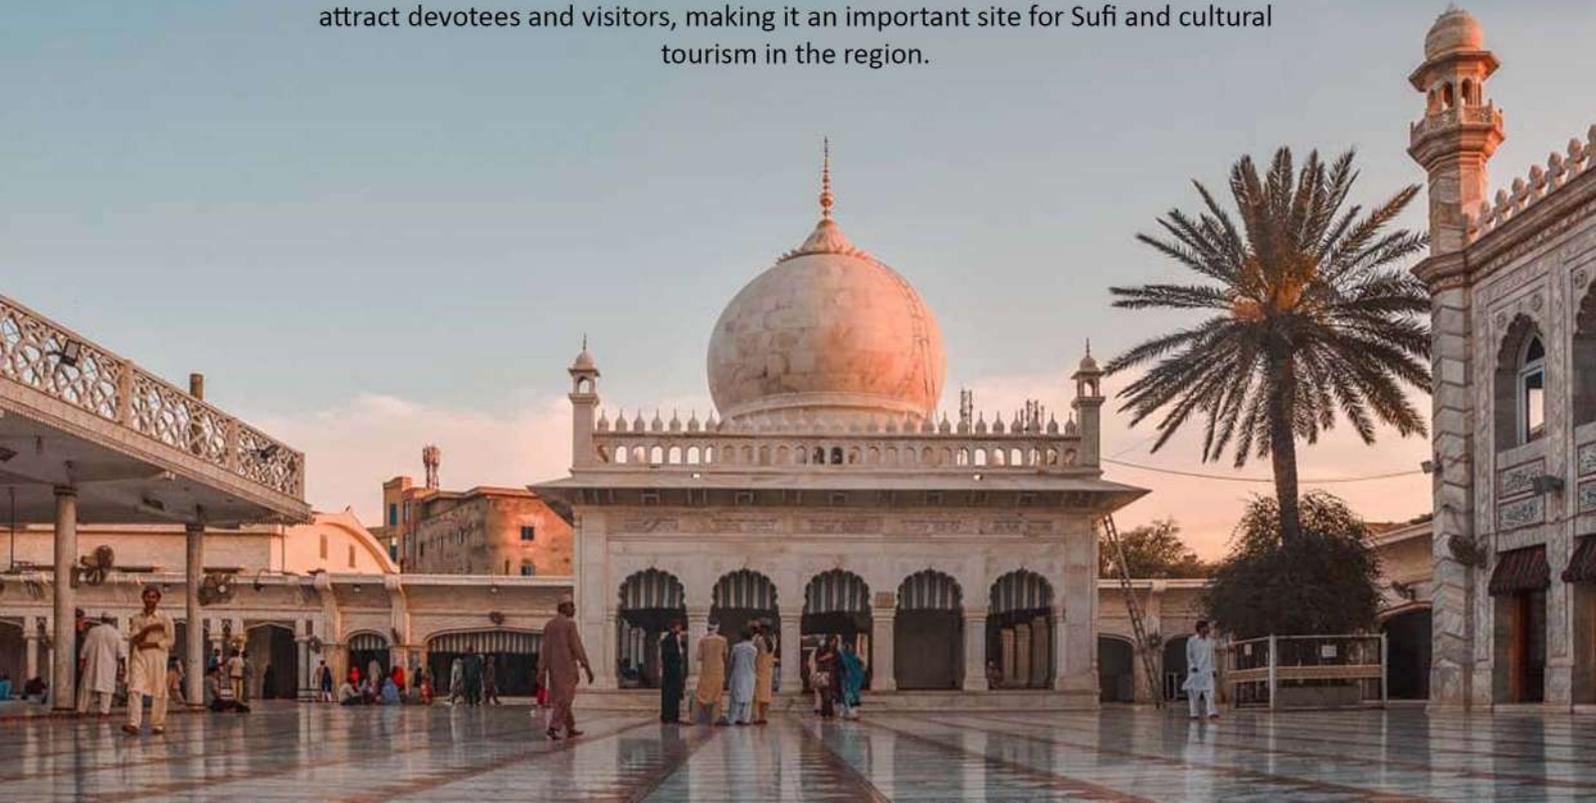

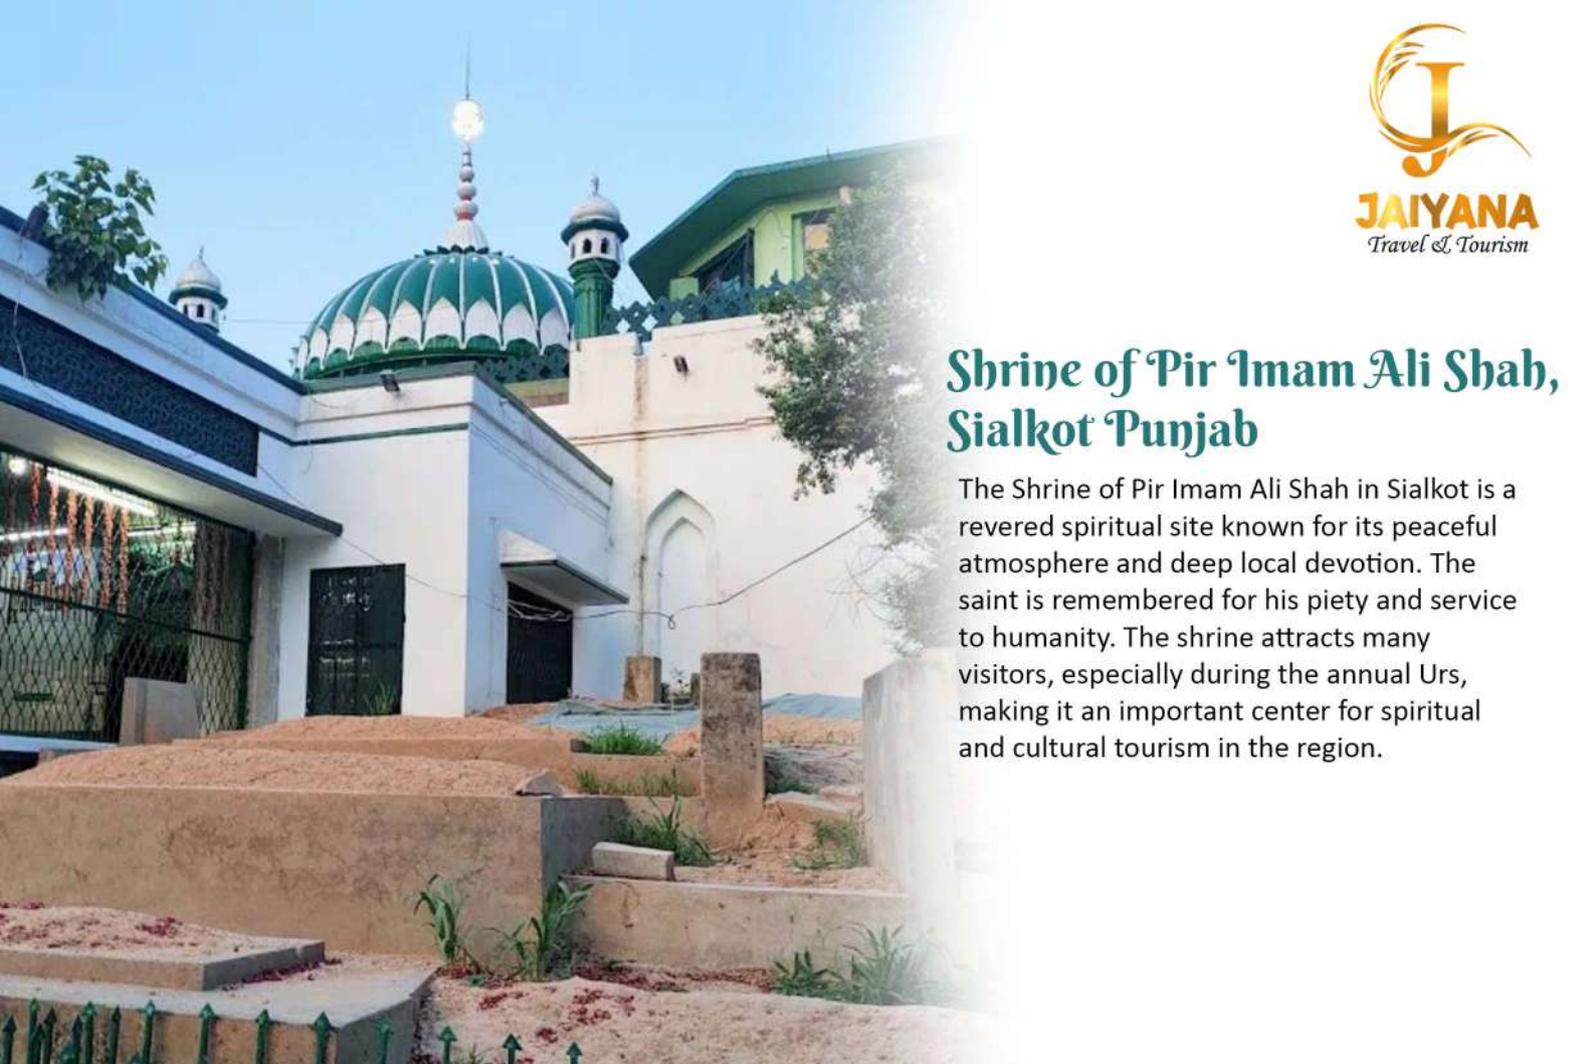

Shrine of Bari Imam, Islamabad Punjab

The Shrine of Bari Imam, located near Islamabad, is dedicated to the 17th-century Sufi saint Hazrat Shah Abdul Latif Kazmi. Revered for his piety and miracles, Bari Imam is considered the patron saint of Islamabad. The shrine's peaceful surroundings and annual Urs celebrations make it a popular site for spiritual and cultural tourism.

Shrine of Pir Mehr Ali Shah, Golra Sharif Punjab

The Shrine of Pir Mehr Ali Shah, located in Golra Sharif near Islamabad, honors the renowned 19th-century Sufi scholar and saint known for promoting Islamic teachings and spirituality. The shrine's serene atmosphere and annual Urs attract devotees and visitors, making it an important site for Sufi and cultural tourism in the region.

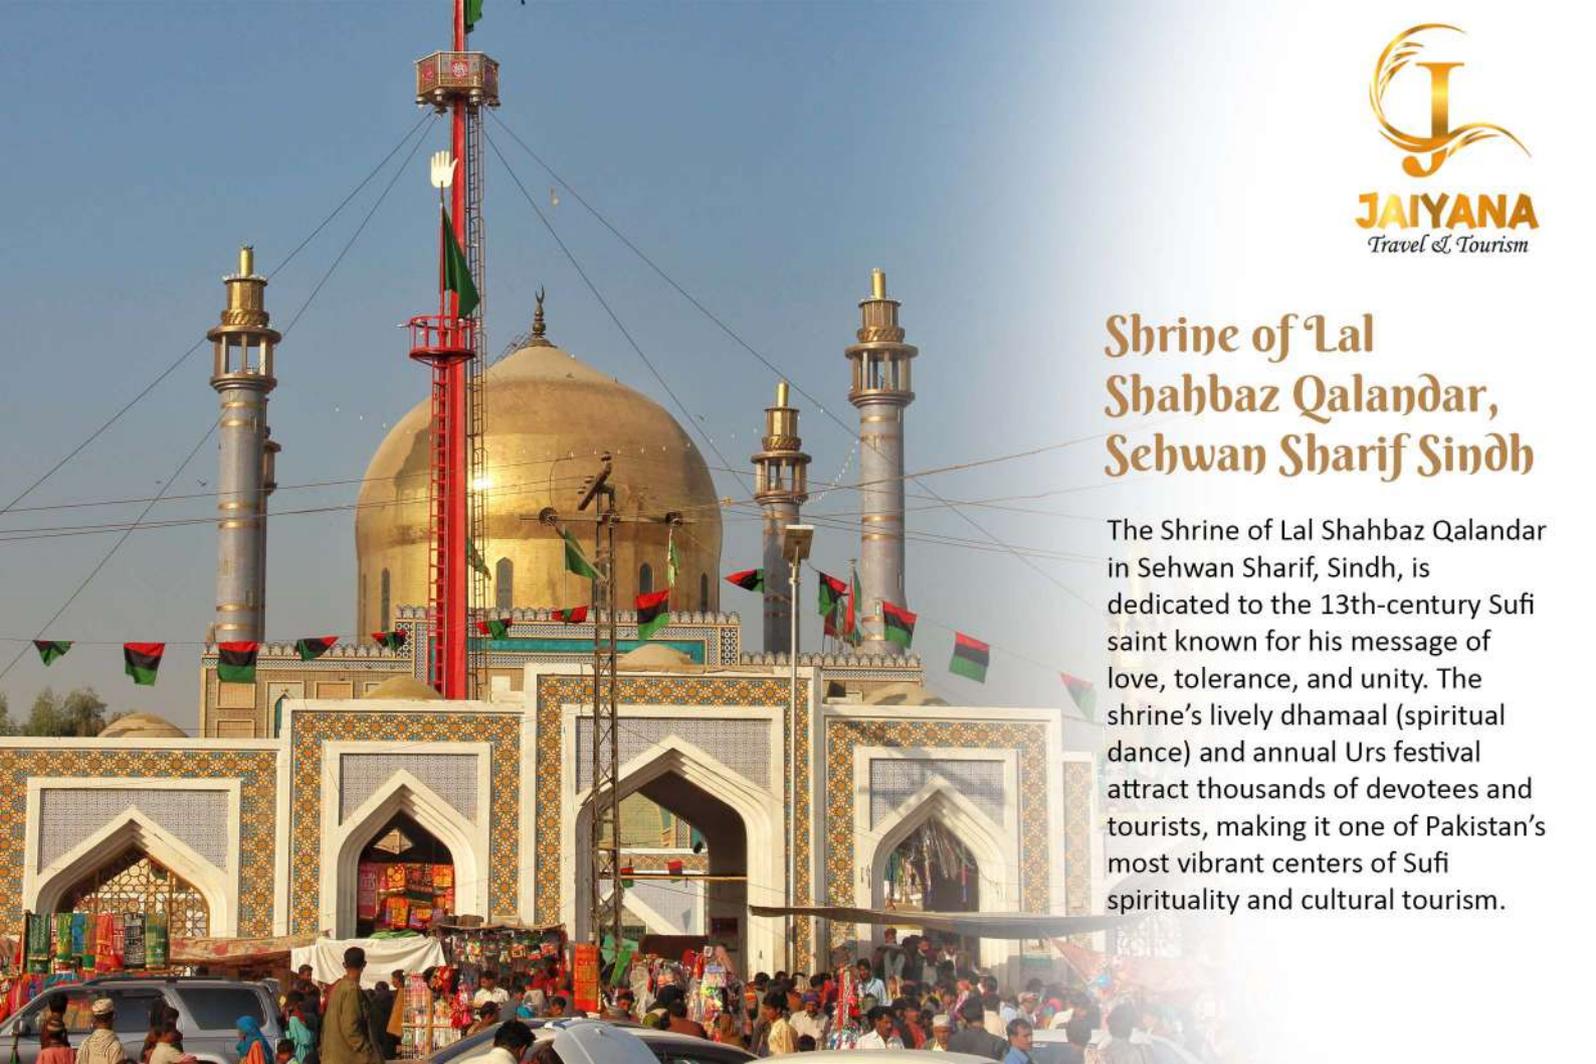

Shrine of Pir Imam Ali Shah, Sialkot Punjab

The Shrine of Pir Imam Ali Shah in Sialkot is a revered spiritual site known for its peaceful atmosphere and deep local devotion. The saint is remembered for his piety and service to humanity. The shrine attracts many visitors, especially during the annual Urs, making it an important center for spiritual and cultural tourism in the region.

Shrine of Lal Shahbaz Qalandar, Sehwan Sharif Sindh

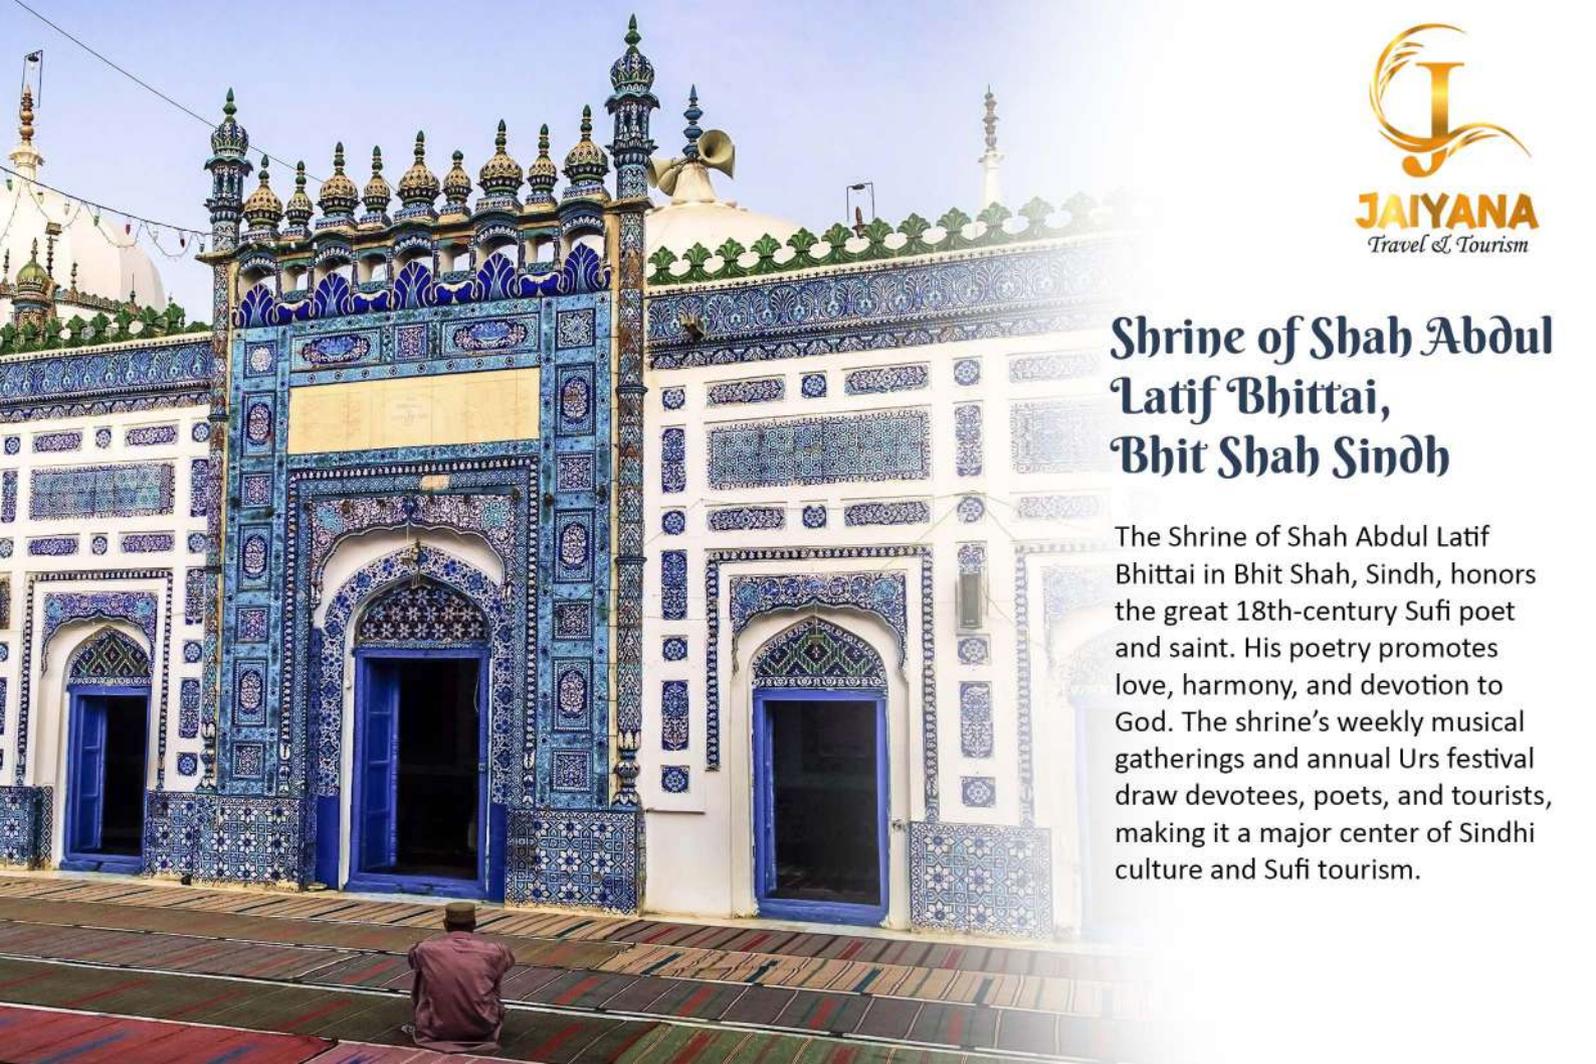

The Shrine of Lal Shahbaz Qalandar in Sehwan Sharif, Sindh, is dedicated to the 13th-century Sufi saint known for his message of love, tolerance, and unity. The shrine's lively dhamaal (spiritual dance) and annual Urs festival attract thousands of devotees and tourists, making it one of Pakistan's most vibrant centers of Sufi spirituality and cultural tourism.

Shrine of Abdullah Shah Ghazi, Karachi Sindh

The Shrine of Abdullah Shah Ghazi, located on a hill overlooking Clifton Beach in Karachi, is dedicated to an 8th-century Sufi saint known for his piety and bravery. It is one of the city's most visited spiritual landmarks, attracting devotees and tourists for its serene views and cultural significance. The shrine symbolizes Karachi's spiritual heritage and inclusive culture.

Shrine of Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai, Bhit Shah Sindh

The Shrine of Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai in Bhit Shah, Sindh, honors the great 18th-century Sufi poet and saint. His poetry promotes love, harmony, and devotion to God. The shrine's weekly musical gatherings and annual Urs festival draw devotees, poets, and tourists, making it a major center of Sindhi culture and Sufi tourism.

Shrine of Sachal Sarmast, Khairpur Sindh

The Shrine of Sachal Sarmast in Khairpur, Sindh, is dedicated to the 18th-century Sufi poet known as the “Voice of Love.” His poetry, written in seven languages, spreads the message of peace and unity. The shrine’s annual Urs and cultural celebrations attract devotees and visitors, making it a key site for Sufi and literary tourism in Sindh.

Makli Necropolis Sindh

Makli Necropolis in Thatta, Sindh, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its grand tombs and intricate stone carvings. Spanning centuries of history, it is a key destination for heritage and cultural tourism in Pakistan.

Mir Karam Ali Talpur Tomb Sindh

The Mir Karam Ali Talpur Tomb Complex in Hyderabad, Sindh, houses the graves of Talpur rulers who ruled the region in the 18th and 19th centuries. Known for its elegant domes, tile work, and frescoes, the complex reflects Talpur-era architecture and serves as an important site for heritage and historical tourism in Sindh.

Why Choose Jaiyana Travel & Tourism?

Authentic Cultural Experience: Jaiyana is dedicated to promoting Pakistan's rich cultural heritage and spiritual landmarks, offering travelers immersive journeys through iconic religious and historical sites.

Expert-Led Tours: With historians included in our top management, we provide deep insights and accurate storytelling that enrich every visit.

Tailored Heritage & Religious Tourism: Specializing exclusively in heritage and spiritual tourism, Jaiyana crafts meaningful pilgrimage and cultural tours that honor traditions and community values.

Strong Local Connections: We collaborate closely with local communities and religious trusts to ensure respectful, authentic, and sustainable tourism.

Comprehensive Services: From seamless logistics to knowledgeable guides and cultural events, Jaiyana delivers a holistic and memorable visitor experience.

Passion for Pakistan: Our mission is to showcase the beauty and spiritual depth of Pakistan's heritage, making every trip a journey into the heart of the nation's soul.

Women & Families: As a 100% women-led company, solo women travelers and groups will feel a true sisterhood and support every step of the way.

CSR Initiatives

Community engagement through tourism-related activities.

Tourism & Community

Local Culture & Traditions: Music, food, folklore linked to the shrine.

Nearby Attractions: Other spiritual, historical, or natural sites.

Community Engagement: Role of local people, caretakers, and Sufi orders.

Cultural Performances: Qawwali nights, poetry recitations, Sufi dance

Educational & Interpretive Elements

Information Center / Museum: Exhibits on Sufism, manuscripts, relics, history.

Additional Facilities: Seminar rooms, lecture halls for workshops and events.

JAIYANA
Travel & Tourism

+92-321-044-2444

www.jaiyanatravel.com

Gulberg II, Lahore, Pakistan

JAIYANA Travel